FREEDOM CLASSIC HORSE SHOW FINALE TO BE HELD IN WACO

The 20th Annual Freedom Classic All-Youth Arabian and Half Arabian Horse Show returns to Waco for the final time February 5-7 at the Heart of Texas Fair Complex.

The event will have 90 classes of horses exhibited by young adults from across 10 states. Spectators will be able to enjoy the concessions and trade show, as well as the silent and live auctions. Parking and admission to the event is free.

David John O'Connor, retired equestrian rider, will be at the event all day on Sunday, February 7. O'Connor won many international competitions as well as the gold medal for the US in the 2000 Olympic Games.

"This will be the last year that the Freedom Classic Horse Show will be held and we are honored that Waco is the host city for this momentous occasion," stated Elizabeth Taylor, Director of the Waco Convention & Visitors Bureau. For more information on the Freedom Classic horse show, contact Dr. Mickey Aboussie at 214-697-2697.
