WACO IS HEATING UP WITH FUN JULY EVENTS!

WACO, Texas - The Waco Convention & Visitors Bureau announces that Waco is the place to be for exciting events happening in the month of July.

Taking place at the Waco Convention Center are the Carver High School Reunion, July 2-4; the National Cheerleaders Association Camp, July 6-9; and the Double Toe Jam Clogging Rally, July 16-17.

Upcoming sporting events in Waco include the Texas State USBC Senior Tournament taking place July 10-24 at the AMF Westview Lanes and the AMF Lake Air Lanes. The USSSA Men's Slowpitch Tournament will be held at the Riverbend Park July 17-18.

The Heart O' Texas Fair Complex will host the TJLA Belt Buck Bonanza July 1-4, the Region IX Sporthorse Association event July 15-18 and the Summer Jam! concert July 16. The Junior Beefmaster Breeders United Junior National event will take place July 19-25 and the one HOT Reining event will be held July 29-August 1.

Baylor Center for Christian Music Studies will be the host for the Alleluia! Annual Music and Worship Conference July 20-23. The conference will take place in the Meadows Recital Hall and the Jones Concert Hall inside the Glennis McCrary Music Building at Baylor University.

“Waco is really heating up with fun and excitement. There is a lot going on in the city this month,” said Elizabeth Taylor, Director of the Waco Convention & Visitors Bureau. “We are always happy to have events returning, as well as new events, choosing Waco as their host city.”
