WACO HOTEL WINS “INN OF THE YEAR” AWARD

Waco’s Quality Inn & Suites has been awarded the “Inn of the Year” designation for 2010. The Quality Inn & Suites was one of three nominees for “Inn of the Year”, out of 864 properties, from the Choice Owners Council. It has been noted as a top performing property among the company’s 4,800 US franchised hotels, and is among the top 3% of properties within the Quality Brand.

Each year, Choice Hotels International, selects hotels that represent superior, consistent excellence as Inn of the Year Award Winners. The winner is chosen after a series of unannounced inspections that assess the hotel and its staff on hospitality, service, appearance and operational standards. The hotel that is given the award must offer visitors a level of services and guest experiences that sets the standards for the entire industry.

“The Waco CVB is very proud and honored that a Waco property has received such a distinguished award,” stated Elizabeth A. Taylor, Director for the Waco Convention & Visitors Bureau. “The Quality Inn & Suites in Waco is another prime example of the why people enjoy their stay in Waco.”
